October 19, 20, & 21, 2007

Gray Rock ORV

Mt. Olive, AL

Just North of Birmingham

205/337-9905

Come check out Alabama's best trails on this privately owned ORV Park. With over 2000 acres "Gray Rock ORV" has something for everyone. We've put together the fun of trail rides with the excitement of competition. This event boast a combination of a competition, mud bog, and trail rides, which make the Fall For All fun for the whole family.

Event Cost

For pre-registration the cost is only $55 per driver and vehicle and $5 per each passenger for the weekend or $30 a day. Deadline for pre-registration is October 1st or you can register on site for $70 per driver and vehicle and $5 per passenger (weekend) or $40 a day. Paid entry includes an event plaque, 1 raffle ticket and all the trail riding you can stand. Also, (optional but no extra charge), entry into the competition. T-shirts are not included in the entry fee but can be pre-ordered on the registration form. Also, there will be snacks and food available. Lunch/Dinner Saturday & Lunch on Sunday by the same folks that cooked at last year's Fall For All!

There are some new rules: No one under 18 allowed in without a parent or legal guardian. No spectators allowed in. Park closes at 4pm on Sunday. No Glass Bottles.

Please look over all the rules below!

Trail Rides & Competition

We have a unique trail ride adventure. There will be NEW maps available (while they last) at registration. All the trails are marked with signs and arrows. We will have workers everywhere around the park to help with whatever you may need. Helmets are required for competition on Sunday.
